
Town of Princeton...
So Near yet so Far Away

Princeton is only hours from the urban centers of British Columbia... yet it seems another world. Time slows down in the Princeton area. The pace is leisurely. The air is clean, the landscape and rivers beckon one to take pleasure in the outdoors.

The old west is revived at our rodeo, racing days and other community events.

Public services include an RCMP detachment, Government agent, Hospital, Ambulance service, Search and rescue, Post office, chartered bank, a credit union & four gas stations, plus some very fine restaurants.

When you see all there is to do, and the hospitality that goes with it, you will want to make this your new residence.
